Future Ministry Cotteridge

The three denominations are working towards our future Ministry:

The proposal is for us to have the equivalent of a full-time minister by a three way split.

URC: We'll be part of a new Pastorate with Weoley Hill, Weoley Castle and Carrs Lane. Having a third of the Minister's time. Plans to advertise the position are being put together.

Methodist: An appointment will be made at next year's Stationing, with us having a third of a Minister alongside St. Andrew's. at the moment Farai Mapamula is one of the Superintendent Ministers who is overseeing Cotteridge

Anglican: We will have a third of a Minister alongside The Church of the Ascension.

The Archdeacon is advertising the vacancy and interviews will be in early December.

The denominations will provide cover for our services going forward, and Roger will liaise on this and continue to give his leadership.

Costs will be higher than we currently support, and ministerial expenses will be apportioned.
